PROGRAM/ABSTRACT BOOKS

The ICN2022 Program and Abstract Book are already available online here.

SOCIAL PROGRAM

On Sunday, we will have our welcome reception at Instituto Gulbenkian de Ciência with a special session on “Brain and Behavior: Art and Science”, which will address the relationship between art and science inspired by neuroethology.

On Monday, there will be an icebreaker event for early career scientists from 6 to 8 pm (drinks and snacks included) followed by an informal get together led by local early career scientists in one of the most lively neighborhood of Lisbon, Bairro Alto.

The congress ends with a banquet at Casa do Alentejo on Friday evening.

COVID-19 REGULATIONS

Before traveling to ICN2022, please check the COVID-19 Regulations. Please test yourself before attending the conference should you have symptoms. Currently, entry into Portugal no longer requires proof of full vaccination, recovery or negative COVID-19 test. Thus, proof of vaccination or negative test will not be required to meeting participants. However, we strongly encourage participants to be fully vaccinated. Masks are only mandatory in health facilities, public transport, taxis and similar passenger transport. Although the use of masks is no longer mandatory, for your own safety, and for the safety of others we recommend the use of masks inside the lecture halls and during the poster sessions.
